On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any member or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is, or was, when the claim arises, on the Register of Members of the Company as a holder or one of the holders of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made.
36. The Directors may if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums for which calls shall have been made and upon the money so paid in advance or so much thereof as, from time to time, exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate as the member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon but not more than six per cent per annum unless the Company in General Meeting shall otherwise direct. No voting rights in respect of the monies so paid in advance shall be exercisable until the monies shall have become payable. Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividend or participate in profits of the company and until appropriated towards satisfaction of any call, shall be treated as a loan to the Company and not as a part of its Capital and shall be repayable to the members at any time without notice if the Directors so decide.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

37. If any member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued.
38. The notice shall fix a date (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place or places appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or installment is payable and to which the notice relates will be liable to be forfeited.
39. If the requisites of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or instalments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. Neither the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any member to the Company in respect of his shares, neither by way of principal or interest, nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any such money, shall preclude the Company from thereafter proceeding to enforce a forfeiture of such shares as herein provided.
40. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof shall forthwith be made in the Register but no forfeiture, shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry aforesaid.
41. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and the Directors may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
42. The Directors may, at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.
43. (1) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all calls, instalment, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the date of forfeiture with interest thereon from the date of forfeiture until payment at such rate not exceeding twelve per cent per annum as the Board may determine.

- (2) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
 - (3) The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale, re-allotment or other disposition thereof and execute a transfer of the share in favor of the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or disposed of.
 - (4) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share.
 - (5) The transferee shall not be bound to see application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
 - (6) The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the term of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
44. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
 45. A declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company, and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming, to be entitled to the shares and such declaration and the receipt of the Company of the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such share.
 46. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares (other than fully paid up shares) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 14 hereof is to have full effect and such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the company's lien if any, on such shares. The Directors may at any time declare any shares to be wholly or in part to be exempt from the provisions of this Article.
 47. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Board of Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrators or his committee, curator bonis or other legal representative as the case may be and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfillment or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for fourteen days after such notice. To give effect to such sale the Directors may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
 48. A certificate in writing under the hand of any Director that the last mentioned power of sale has arisen and is exercisable by the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.
 49. The net proceeds of any such sale after payment of the costs of such sale, shall be applied in or towards the satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements of such member, and the residue (if any), paid to such member or any of his executors, administrators, curator bonis or other legal representatives as the case may be.
 50. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers by these presents given, the Directors may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register in respect of the shares sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, nor to the application of the purchase money and after his name has been entered in the Register in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

51. The Company shall not register a transfer of shares in, or debentures of, the Company, unless a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee and specifying the name, address and occupation if any, of the transferee, has been delivered to the Company along with the certificate relating to the shares or debentures or if no such certificate is in existence, along with the letter of allotment of the shares or debentures: provided that where, on an application in writing made to the company by the transferee and bearing the stamp required for an instrument of transfer, it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors that the instrument of transfer signed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee has been lost, the Company may register the transfer on such terms as to indemnify as the Board may think fit. The transferor shall be deemed to remain holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.
52. An application for the Registration of the transfer of shares may be made either by the transferor or the transferee provided that, where such application is made by the transferor, no registration shall in the case of partly paid shares be effected unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by the Act and the Company shall, unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the Register the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration was made by the transferee.
53. Before registering any transfer tendered for registration, the Directors may, if they so think fit, give notice by letter posted in the ordinary course to the registered holder that such transfer deed has been lodged and that, unless objection is taken the transfer will be registered and if such registered holder fails to lodge an objection in writing at the office of the Company within seven days from the posting of such notice to him, he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of the said transfer. Where no notice is received by the registered holder, the Directors shall be deemed to have decided not to give notice and in any event the non-receipt by the registered holder of any notice shall not entitle him to make any claim of any kind against the Company in respect of such non-receipt.
54. The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of its registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares, made or purporting to be made by an apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the Register of Members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest to or in the same shares, notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable right, title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have entered such notice or referred thereto, in any book of the Company and the Company shall not be bound or required to regard, to attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of equitable right, title or interest or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do, though it may have been entered or referred to in some book of the Company; but the Company shall nevertheless, be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto if the Directors shall so think fit.
55. The instrument of transfer shall be in writing and shall be in the form prescribed in section 56 of the Act.
56. The Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares upon which the Company has a lien and in the case of shares not fully paid up may refuse to register a transfer to a transferee of whom they do not approve provided that registration of a transfer of shares shall not be refused on the ground the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except a lien on the shares.
57. In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the above powers, the Board may, subject to the provisions of section 58 of the Act, also decline to register in exceptional circumstances when it is felt that the transferee is not a desirable person from the larger point of view of the interest of the Company as a whole, subject to any other applicable law.

58. No transfer shall be made to a minor or person of unsound mind.
59. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the Office for registration, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence as the Directors may require to prove the title of transferor or his right to transfer the shares or the right of the transferee to have the shares transferred. The Directors may waive the production of any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction.
60. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same.
61. If the Directors refuse to register the transfer of any shares, they shall, within thirty days from the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal giving reasons for such refusal.
62. No fee shall be charged for registration of transfers or issue of new share certificates in replacement of those which are old, decrepit, worn out or where the pages on the reverse of the share certificates for recording transfers have been fully utilized. No fee shall also be charged for transmission of share or for registration of any Power of Attorney, Probate, Letter of Administration or other similar instruments.
63. On giving seven days' notice by advertisement as required by section 91 of the Act in a newspaper the transfer books and Register of Members may be closed during such time or times as the Directors think fit, not exceeding on the whole forty-five days in each year but not exceeding thirty days at a time.
64. The executors or administrators or the holder of a succession certificate in respect of shares of a deceased member (not being one of several joint-holders) shall be the only person whom the Company will recognize as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member and in case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holder of any registered shares, the survivors and in case of death of all joint-holders, the nominee shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person.
65. Before recognizing any executor or administrator or legal heir, the Directors may require him to obtain a Grant of Probate or Letter of Administration or succession certificate or other legal representation, as the case may be, from some competent Court, provided nevertheless that in any case where the Board in their absolute discretion think fit, it shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of Probate or Letters of Administration or a succession certificate or such other legal representation upon such terms as to indemnify or otherwise as the Directors may consider desirable; provided also that the holder of the succession certificate shall not be entitled to receive any dividends already declared but not paid to the deceased member unless the succession certificate declares that the holder thereof is entitled to receive such dividends; provided also that if the member was a member of joint-hindu family, the Directors on being satisfied to that effect and on being satisfied that the shares standing in his name in fact belonged to the joint family, may recognize the survivors thereof as having title to the shares registered in the name of such member but this proviso shall in no way be deemed to modify or nullify the provisions contained in Article 13 hereof.
66. Any person becoming entitled to or to transfer of shares in consequence of the death or insolvency of any member, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article or of his title as the Directors think sufficient, may with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a member in respect of such shares, or may, subject to the regulations as to transfer herein before contained, transfer such shares. This Article is hereinafter referred to as "The Transmission Article". Subject to any other provisions of these Articles, if the person so becoming entitled to shares under this or the last preceding Articles shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to transfer the shares to some other person, he shall execute an instrument of transfer in accordance with the provisions of these Articles relating to transfer of shares. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right of transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid.

67. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, if the Directors in their sole discretion are satisfied in regard thereto, a person becoming entitled to a registered share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may receive and give discharge for any dividend or other monies payable in respect of the share.

68. A nominee on becoming entitled to shares by reason of the death of the holder or joint holders shall be entitled to the same Dividend and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share or Debenture, except that he shall not before being registered as holder of such shares or Debentures, be entitled in respect of them to exercise any right conferred on a member or Debenture holder in relation to meetings of the Company.

Provide that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the shares or Debentures, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonus, interest or other moneys payable or rights accrued or accruing in respect of the relevant shares or Debentures, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

69. Nothing contained in the foregoing Articles shall apply to transfer of security affected by the transferor and the transferee both of whom are entered as Beneficial Owners in the records of a Depository.

70. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, a Depository shall be deemed to be the registered owner for the purpose of effecting transfer of ownership of Securities on behalf of a Beneficial Owner.

71. Nothing in these Articles shall prejudice any power of the Company to register as shareholder any person to whom the right to any share has been transmitted by operation of Law.

STOCKS

72. The Company in General Meeting may by Ordinary Resolution convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination. The Company shall as required by section 61 of the Act give due notice to the Registrar of Companies of any such conversion or reconversion.

73. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as circumstances admit; but the Board may from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

74. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege and advantage.

75. Such of the regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "share-holder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

76. The Company in General Meeting may, from time to time, by Ordinary Resolution alter the conditions of its Memorandum of Association to increase the share capital by such amounts, to be divided into shares of such amounts as may be specified in the resolution.

77. Any increase in the capital of the Company shall require the approval of the Promoter Shareholder who shall have a pre-emptive right to allotment in any new issue of shares of the Company to maintain their percentage of shareholding at any time of issue of such new shares.
78. In the event Tyco Electronics AMP GmbH is unable, for any reason not attributable to it, to acquire such additional shares, then it shall have the right to renounce its right to acquire the said shares in favour of person(s) nominated by it.
79. The Company may, in General Meeting by Ordinary Resolution alter the conditions of its Memorandum to:

Whenever the Capital of the Company has been increased under the provisions of this Article, the Directors shall comply with the provisions of Section 64 of the Act or any such compliance as may be required by the Act for the time being in force.
81. Subject to the other provisions of these Articles and subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the meeting that resolves upon the increase of capital where the Directors decide to increase the capital of the Company by the issue of further shares, such shares shall be offered to the persons who at the date of the offer, are holders of the equity shares of the Company, in proportion as nearly as circumstances admit to the capital paid up on those shares at the date, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time not being less than fifteen days from the date of the offer within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to have been declined; and after the expiration of such time or on receipt of an earlier intimation from the members to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company; and the offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the person concerned to renounce the shares offered to him or any of them in favour of any other person and the notice aforesaid shall contain a statement of this right but so that the person or persons in whose favour any such shares maybe renounced shall be such as the Directors may in their absolute discretion approve of and in case the Directors may not so approve of any such person the renunciation of any such shares in favour of such persons shall not take effect.
82. In addition to and without derogating from the powers for that purpose conferred on the Directors under these presents, the Company in General Meeting may determine that any shares (whether forming part of the original capital or of any increased capital of the Company) shall be offered in the first instance to existing members in such proportion to the amount of the capital held by them and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par or (subject to compliance with the provisions of the Act), at a discount, as such General Meeting shall determine or make any other provisions as to the issue and allotment of the new shares and with full power to give to any person (whether a member or holder of debentures of the Company or not) the option to call for or be allotted shares of any class of the Company either at a premium or at par or (subject to compliance with the provisions of the Act), at a discount and such option being exercisable at such times and for such consideration as may be directed by such General Meeting.
83. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and instalments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien and otherwise.

84. If, owing to any inequality in the number of new shares to be issued and the number of shares held by the members entitled to have the offer of such new shares, any difficulty shall arise in the apportionment of such new shares or any of them amongst the members, such difficulty shall, in the absence of any direction in the resolution creating the shares or by the Company in General Meeting, be determined by the Directors.
85. The Company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and subject to any such consents as may be required under any other law for the time being in force:
 - a) its share capital
 - b) any capital redemption reserve fund, or
 - c) any share premium account.
86. Subject to the provisions of Section 55 of the Act and other Applicable Law, any preference shares may be issued from time to time, on such other terms as may be decided at the time of the issue. Further,
 - i) Such preference shares shall always rank in priority with respect to payment of Dividend or repayment of Capital vis-à-vis equity shares;
 - ii) The Board may decide on the participation of preference shareholders in the surplus Dividend, type of preference shares issued whether cumulative or otherwise, conversion terms into equity if any;
 - iii) The Board may decide on any premium on the issue or redemption of preference shares.

87. Whenever the share capital by reason of the issue of preference shares or otherwise is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to each class may, subject to the provisions of Sections 48 of the Act, be modified, commuted, affected, abrogated, varied or dealt with by agreement between the company and any person purporting to contract on behalf of that class, provided such agreement is (A) consented to in writing by the holders of at least three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or (B) sanctioned by a resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holder of the shares of that class and all the provisions hereinafter contained as to general meetings shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such meeting. BORROWING POWERS

88. Subject to the provisions of Sections 73 to 76, 179 and 180 of the Act, the Board of Directors may, from time to time at its discretion, by a resolution passed at a meeting of the Board accept deposits from members either in advance of calls or otherwise, and generally raise or borrow or secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company not exceeding the aggregate of the paid up capital of the Company and its free reserves (not being reserves set apart for any specific purpose). Provided, however, where the monies to be borrowed together with the monies already borrowed (apart from temporary loans obtained from the Company's bankers in the ordinary course of business) exceed the aforesaid aggregate, the Board of Directors shall not borrow such monies without the consent of the Company in General Meeting.
89. The Directors may raise or secure the payment or repayment of such sum or sums, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit and in particular by the issue of bonds, debenture or debenture stock of the Company or any mortgage charge or other security upon all or any part of the undertaking or property of the Company (both present and future) including, subject to the provisions of the Act, its uncalled capital for the time being.

If the Directors or any of them or any other persons shall become personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Directors may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage charge or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to secure the Directors or persons so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability.
